CATHOLIC SCHOOLS WEEK DONATION DRIVE

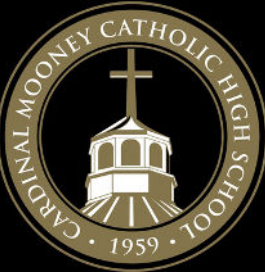

Our Community-wide Donation Drive to Celebrate Catholic Schools Week – “United in Faith and Community” Each day of CSW we will be collecting supplies for the homeless (Resurrection House) and for migrant workers (Casa San Juan Bosco and Guadalupe Social Services of Catholic Charities).

- Freshmen: chapstick and sunscreen
- Sophomores: gloves and knitted beanies
- Juniors: white t-shirts and undershirts
- Seniors: Letters to inmates for prison ministry (instructions will come in their theology classes)

Each morning, we will have a table in the courtyard to collect these items. For every item collected, students will receive a raffle ticket for our prize drawings at lunchtime.

(Please note: The class assignments are just suggestions – of course we will accept any donation listed above regardless of your class designation.)

ATHLETICS

Sports blurbs written by student: Darling Bergstrom

ATHLETICS

Girls Soccer: The girls soccer team is 4-6-3 overall on the season. They beat Gateway Charter Wednesday night (1/24) and continue with district play against Bishop Verot tonight (1/26). If they win, the cougars will advance to the district championship on January 30.

Boys Soccer: The cougars are 7-6-1, and will battle St. Pete Catholic tonight in the 3a District 8 Semifinal. The cougars had a bye in round one of the tournament and now have the opportunity to show what they have. Currently, senior Farid Dib leads the team in goals on the season.

Girls Basketball: The ladies have moved on to 14-6 this season. They are currently on a 6 game winning streak and look to continue that streak tonight (1/26), against Seffner Christian. On Tuesday night the cougars beat Riverview 53-47 at Riverview. Tonight, the ladies celebrate their sole senior, Sam Kotasek, prior to their game at 6:00. Show up to support Sam and the team!

Boys Basketball: The boys are 13-7 overall on the season. After two impressive away wins last week, the cougars face Seffner Christian tonight to celebrate Senior night. There are eight seniors on the team: Kevin O'Donoghue, Sean Scurry, Carter Jula, Connor Heald, George Leibold, Joseph Gillson, Bryce Shaeffer, and Nick Bryan. These boys have had a crucial role in the success of the program while at Mooney. Come out to celebrate them tonight (1/26)!

Comp Cheer: The ladies competed in the Regional tournament at Plant City this past weekend, where they won! They will be headed to the State Championship competition looking to bring home Mooney cheers first ever State title- in their first ever year as a program!!
