Gifts of Christ Humility

Hailey Renner with Guidance
Counselor, Mrs. George

January's focus for the Gifts of Christ program was "humility." Students will embrace the wisdom and knowledge that their mentors and teachers have to offer, and understand that they can learn from their knowledge and experiences. They should be humbled with the knowledge and talents they have and can always learn more. Our winners for January are Sean Dorsa and Hailey Renner. Congratulations!! February's focus for the Gifts of Christ program is "fortitude." Students can do all things through Christ who strengthens them. Students will seek courage in difficult situations in pursuit of what is true, beautiful and good.

Sean Dorsa with Guidance Counselor

ATHLETICS

Sports blurbs written by student: Darling Bergstrom

Girls Soccer: The girls soccer team unfortunately ended their season Friday night at Bishop Verot, in the district semifinal. The Cougars finished with a record of 4-7-3. They say goodbye to six seniors as their seasons conclude, but have a strong underclass to carry them to success next year.

Boys Soccer: The boys team finished their season 8-7-1, with a heartbreaking loss to Bishop Verot in the district championship Tuesday night. Senior Farid Dib led the team in scoring this season, and Junior goalkeeper Ethan Boyes averaged 2.5 saves a match.

Girls Basketball: The ladies are 16-6 on the season after an impressive Senior Night win against Seffner Christian last week. They play tonight (2/2) at Sarasota high, and begin district play next week. Junior Kali Barret scored her 1000 point Tuesday night against The Academy of Central Florida. Congratulations Kali!

Boys Basketball: The Cougars are 16-7 this season and are on an 8 game winning streak. They will face Sarasota tonight (2/2) at 7:30pm at Sarasota High, for a rematch of their 52-47 loss earlier this season. Make sure to go support the boys so that they can sink the sailors tonight! They enter district play next week, earning the #1 seed in the district and getting a bye Wednesday. They will play Thursday (2/8) time and opponent TBD.

Comp Cheer: Our competition cheer team is headed to the Cheerleading State Championship in Lakeland this weekend! These ladies have made it to States in their first year as a program, what an accomplishment! They showcased their State routine at Mooney on Thursday (1/1)- and what a success! Good luck to our competition cheer team!

Girls Weightlifting : The girls weightlifting team competed in Districts last weekend and came out successful! The team was runner-up for both modalities of Olympic and Traditional. There were multiple girls who placed (1st, 2nd, and 3rd) in their weight class: Claire Maculosa, Zoe Kirby, Shelly DiLorenzo, Annabella Masters, Valetnina Borhert, Emily Smalley, Isabella Picone, Cecilia Velotta, Kiera Smith, Ashley Allard and Elle Lambert.
